- (v) is not already the holder of any stall, shop or other place inside a market or fair;

11.0 COMPLIANCE

11.1 All the provisions contained in all Municipal Markets/Fairs Regulations made under the Local Government Act shall apply to all markets/fairs generally and the stall occupier and his employees, successors and/or heirs shall comply therewith.

11.2 Should the stall occupier be found guilty by a Court in virtue of a contravention of regulations or of any other enactment relating to trade in the market/fair, the Council may rescind the contract by notice in writing and without any judicial or extra judicial process. In that case, the stall-occupier shall forthwith vacate the stall and remove all articles there from. He shall not be entitled to receive any indemnity whatsoever from the City Council.

11.3 In case the stall occupier and/or his successor and/or his heir provide false or incorrect information, the City Council may rescind the right of occupation “ipso facto”.

11.4 Should the stall occupier fail to comply with any one of the abovementioned Clauses, the City Council shall send a notice (the “Notice”), by registered letter, to the stall occupier requesting him/her to comply with the clause within a delay of 7 days from receipt of the Notice and notifying him/her that failure to do so may entail the termination of the right of occupation “ipso facto”; in case the stall occupier fails to comply with all the requirements of the notice, the right of occupation may be rescinded “ipso facto”. Such letter shall be sent by post or delivered at the address set out below and it shall be deemed to be sufficient service on the stall occupier.
